For those whose tastes demand the less ornate designs of Colonial days, which have come down to us through the years with undiminished popularity, we have gathered together a delightful collection of Colonial reproductions. From Cape Cod to Coronado, these pieces are lending dignity and grace to the homes of those who have discriminatingly selected them.

In tribute to the early metal craftsmen whose priceless originals are now admired and cherished as museum pieces, we offer the succeeding group of fixtures, not as original creations but as a conscientious effort to follow the beacon light of design which they kindled for us so many years ago.

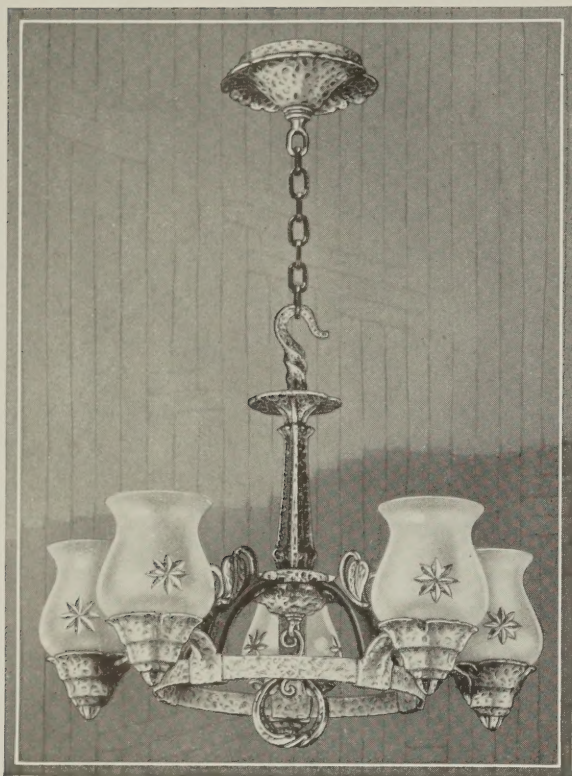

The quaintness of hand-fashioned sconces has been simulated through modern methods which have placed these pieces within the reach of all.
